Dear Supporter,

The Illinois General Assembly passed a large volume of bills out of both the State House and State Senate during this legislative session. So too, did the Illinois Environmental Council (IEC) successfully shepherd the passage of a record number of bills on our environmental legislative agenda. However, most of those bills were not on our list of priority legislation. While undoubtedly important, they are generally small steps in the right direction rather than the overarching policy change we need to protect people and the planet, especially as the impacts of climate change worsen.

Among the exciting wins were: SB58, a bill that bans styrofoam from purchase by state agencies and public universities; SB2368, legislation that enacts the first statewide building code and increases Illinois' climate resiliency; SB40, which ensures electric vehicle-ready (EV-ready) buildings statewide; and SB1701, Illinois' first law that assigns nutrient pollution reduction responsibilities to state agencies.

This year, IEC saw the Illinois State Senate hold up a disappointing number of bills. In a few cases, it was because of late-breaking stakeholder concerns or a lack of information from leading decision-makers. We chose to score these critical bills in the House and hope the Senate will cast votes on them during upcoming opportunities.

Unfortunately, the General Assembly passed several bills with negative environmental impacts this year. Perhaps most upsetting, some of our trusted environmental champions in the legislature supported them. We fiercely opposed the following bills: HJR23, which would expand I-55; SB76, legislation that removed Illinois' ban on new nuclear facilities; and HB3445, which would increase the price of renewable energy transmission. These bills carry long-term environmental impacts if enacted as passed.

Fortunately, Governor Pritzker has vetoed SB76 and HB3445 as well as HB2878, a bill related to the I-55 expansion. We will need your support to keep these vetoes in place in October and November.

We hope our Scorecard will be a useful resource and allow you to see whether your legislators have used their power in the General Assembly to protect you, plants, animals, and our environment or whether they used their power to aid big polluters and dirty fossil fuel special interests. Please use this information to build a relationship with your lawmakers, urging them to always vote in support of environmental issues.

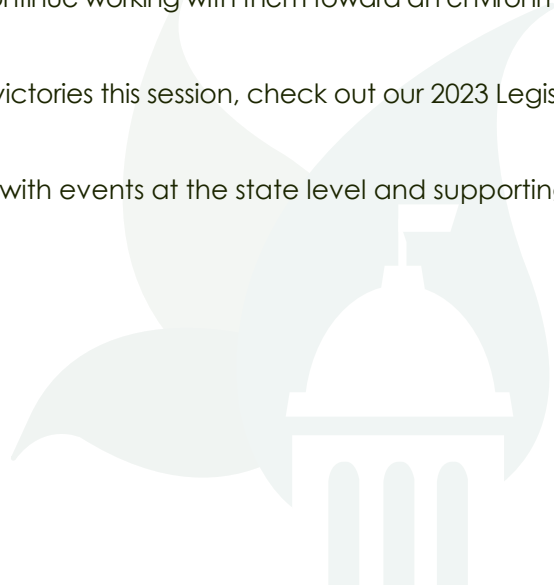

Each bill on this Scorecard is important to protecting our environment. We are grateful to the lawmakers who vote to protect our environment every time and will continue working with them toward an environmental majority that achieves even greater things.

For a more detailed look at Illinois' environmental policy victories this session, check out our 2023 Legislative Report on our website at www.ilenviro.org/legreport23.

As always, thank you for your dedication to keeping up with events at the state level and supporting IEC.

Thank you for your support.

Jennifer Walling
Executive Director, Illinois Environmental Council

EXPLANATION OF SCORING

For each bill, legislators are evaluated on whether they voted with the pro-environment position (“+”) on the bill or against it (“-“). For bills that the environmental community supports, a YES vote is a + and a NO vote is a -. For bills that are opposed, a NO vote is a + and a YES vote is a -. The votes are then tallied and an overall score is calculated. For instance, someone who voted pro-environment on six bills and against on four bills is given a 60% score.

The only votes not counted are those when a legislator had an excused absence (noted in the chart as “A” or “E”), which generally meant that the legislator was not in Springfield on that day due to an illness or other unexpected circumstances. Legislators who had absences were scored according to the other votes they cast.

Two other voting possibilities are included. On occasion, a legislator may vote “Present,” which is essentially an abstention. We typically have counted these votes the same as a no vote on the bill, because the impact on the bill’s potential to pass is the same as if that legislator had voted no. These are shown in the voting chart as “P” and counted the same as a “+” when it helps the pro-environment position, and shown as “p” and counted as “-” when it hurts.

Similarly, when a legislator is in Springfield but does not vote on a bill, we have counted it the same as a “no” vote on the bill. This is noted in the chart as “NV” and counted the same as a “+” when this action supports the pro-environment position. It is noted as “nv” and counted as “-” when it does not support the pro-environment position.

Legislators have many reasons for voting “Present” or for not voting at all. They may vote “Present” because of a philosophical conflict on the issue, or simply because they don’t want to commit publicly one way or the other. They may miss a vote because they were in an important meeting, were in the bathroom at the time of the vote, or were at their desk but decided not to vote. Regardless of the reason, all of these actions have significant consequences for whether or not a bill passes, and therefore we have decided that it is appropriate to hold legislators accountable for their actions, whatever they may be.

The Environmental Scorecard is published by the Illinois Environmental Council (IEC) for purposes of public education. It provides a record and analysis of votes in the Illinois General Assembly on a wide range of environmental and conservation bills with the goal of creating a better-informed citizenry.

No endorsement of any party, legislator or political candidate is implied in this Scorecard or in any other publications or activities of the Illinois Environmental Council. The IEC does not make financial contributions to any candidate or political party.

Since 1975, the Illinois Environmental Council has worked to safeguard Illinois—its people, its plants and animals, and the natural systems on which all life depends by building power for people and the environment. Representing over 100 environmental organizations in the state, IEC carries out its mission to advance public policies that create healthy environments across Illinois through education, advocacy and movement building.
